Full camping equipment including tents and mess kits will be carried, for the boys will seek to bring down costs to the minimum. A colored chef from this section will accompany the youthful bandmen.

The oldest member of the party with the exception of the band leader, and instructor, is 18 and the youngest 13. The uniforms are of blue piped with broad gold stripes. The drum major will wear a red and black fur busbee and carry a shiny baton.

Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This is unquestionably one of the most successful medicines in use for bowel complaints. A few doses of it will cure an ordinary attack of diarrhoea. It has been used in nine epidemics of dysentery with perfect success. It can always be depended upon to give prompt relief in cases of colic and cholera morbus. When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take. Every family should keep this remedy at hand.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of Hall's Catarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. 21 Belgians To Study in States

By R. H. SHEFFIELD

(United Press Staff Correspondent). Brussels, Aug. 21.—(By Mail)—Two Belgian students have already embarked for America to enter the University of California, to take advantage of the exchange of students plan contained in the new civic charter of the Hoover University Foundation. Nineteen other students will leave Antwerp September 1 to enter other American universities.

Other schools drawing students from Belgian universities are as follows: Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Stanford, Massachusetts Tech, Columbia, Cornell, Chicago, Pennsylvania and Johns Hopkins. The schools they will go from are 6 from Brussels, 8 from Louvain, 4 from Liege, 2 from Ghent and one from Mons.

Seventeen American youths will enter Belgian universities in accordance with the terms of the exchange plan.

change plan. Their names have not yet been made public.

The Hoover Foundation is the outcome of what started out as the Committee for the relief of Belgium at the outbreak of the war in Europe. It was established as a private enterprise by Herbert Hoover, whom Belgians still call blessed. When the committee's task of relieving suffering throughout the devastated districts was completed, a sufficient balance was left in the treasury not only to reimburse the Belgian government for the five hundred million francs it had contributed, but also there was a sum of between 150 and 160 millions of francs which the committee was free to do with as it saw fit.

In its solicitude for Belgium's youth, the money was set aside for high education. After consultation with officials of the four Belgian universities and the Mons School of Mines, it was decided to set aside 90 million francs for development of those schools and 70 millions to be used as a foundation to make money advances to worthy Belgian students, supplying them with the wherewithal to complete higher studies. A plan for exchange of students with the larger universities of the United States was also included in the foundation.

The plan was presented to the Belgian government and the gifts accepted with gratitude by Premier Delacroix. A bill was later framed for "civil personification" or incorporation of the foundation to empower it to operate under Belgian statutes.

This ghost was a 1920 model

LAST MONTH, on a bet, WITH THE boys up home, I SPENT a night, ALONE IN the old, HAUNTED HOUSE. AND WHEN I heard, MOANS AND groans, I SAID "The wind," AND TRIED to sleep, I HEARD rappings, AND SAID "Rats," AND ROLLED over, THEN I heard steps, AND IN the light, OF A dying moon, A WHITE spook rose, I WASN'T scared—much, BUT DIDN'T feel like, STARTING ANYTHING, BUT THEN I caught, JUST A faint whiff, OF A familiar, AND DELICIOUS smell, WHICH TIPPED me off, SO I gave the ghost, THE HORSE laugh, AND SAID "Ed, YOU FAT guys, MAKE BUM ghosts, BUT BEFORE you fade, LEAVE WITH me one, OF YOUR cigarettes, THEY SATISFY."

THAT spicy, delicious aroma of fine tobacco, both Turkish and Domestic, makes you almost hungry for the "satisfy-smoke." And there isn't a ghost of a chance you'll ever find its equal anywhere—for the Chesterfield blend is an exclusive blend. It can't be copied.
